Biographical Note

S. Bryce Wing, who died in 1975 at age 85, was a lifelong horseman and foxhunter, and he played professional ice hockey for several years for a farm team of the New York Rangers. He was born around 1890 to Louis Stuart and Bertha Hurlbutt Wing of Long Island. He attended Yale University and served in the Remount Service in France during World War I.

In the late 1920s, Wing moved to Maryland from his home in Westbury, Long Island, where he hunted with the Meadow Brook Hunt. In 1929, Alligator, owned by Wing's wife, won the Maryland Hunt Cup and other important races over times fences. In the 1930s, Wing was master of the Harford Hunt in Maryland (now the Elkridge-Harford).

Wing was president of the National Steeplechase Association from 1948 until 19864, chairman of the Maryland Hunt Cup from 1962 until 1972, a steward at racetracks in Maryland and a member of the Jockey Club.

Wing's stepson, Peter Winants, was the director of the National Sporting Library from 1991 until 1999.

Collection Description

The S. Bryce Wing Photograph Albums collection contains 8 albums of photographs and some other ephemera compiled by sportsman S. Bryce Wing over a period of approximately 25 years. The majority of the albums chronicle Wing's involvement with equestrian sports in New York and New England during the 1910s, 1920s, and 1930s; the remaining album features photographs taken during Wing's service with the A.E.F. from 1917 to 1919. Many of the people, horses, and places represented in the albums have been identified by Wing. The overall physical condition of the albums is good: two have detached covers with the result of some tattered pages, and two others show signs of mold. The albums in this collection have been arranged chronologically.
