

NSLM Crossword Challenge

Across

3. "Canter & Crawl" sculptor
4. This dog, whose breed was created by 2-Down, starred in an eponymous PBS TV show in the late 1990s that taught kids about literary classics
6. "Still Water" sculptor
8. Author of "Riding to Hounds on Long Island," informally
9. Portion of a polo match
10. Piece of metal tack that goes in a horse's mouth
11. Player's skill level, as in polo or golf
15. Driving configuration with one leader in front and two wheelers in back
17. French word for "training," also an Olympic sport
19. A good landmark for 'chasing
20. National Sporting Library & Museum
21. Artificial duck, often finely crafted from wood
22. Small flock of quail

Down

1. A huntsman's assistant in the field
2. Born on this day in 1795, this man developed a popular breed of small fox terrier that was later named after him
5. A pair of dogs
7. Word yelled to trigger the release of a target when shooting
8. A two-beat gait
10. 1973 Triple Crown champ, informally
12. A pair of hounds
13. Competition over a single fence set at great height
14. The NSLM's rare book collection includes over 90 copies of "The Compleat __," first written by Izaak Walton in 1653
16. "Call to the __" is played by a bugler before every race
18. "__ in America," the first exhibition held at the Museum in 2011