Book Signing to be Held at the National Sporting Library and Museum on Friday, November 30, 2012
6:00 p.m. reception, 7:00 p.m. lecture

MIDDLEBURG, VA – The National Sporting Library and Museum will hold a book signing for Bruce Smart who has just completed the third volume in his A Community of the Horse series called Legacies. The event is free and open to the public. Books will be available for purchase that evening.

BRUCE SMART is a retired international business and government executive with a life-long interest in the environment and education. Living in Upperville, Virginia, for the past 25 years, he has spent much of his time photographing and writing about its horse community, and defending its rural character from encroaching development.

For more information about A Community of the Horse: Legacies, please see the attached brochure.

To attend the event, please call 540-687-6542, ex 10 or email jsheehan@nsl.org.

The National Sporting Library and Museum is dedicated to preserving and sharing the literature, art and culture of equestrian and field sports. Founded in 1954, the institution has over 24,000-books dating from the 16th-21st centuries. The John H. Daniels Fellowship program supports the research of visiting scholars. The Museum, a newly renovated and expanded historic building on the Library campus, houses exhibits of American and European fine animal and sporting art. Information is shared through exhibitions, lectures, seminars, publications and special events. The NSLM is open to researchers and the general public.

Admission: free.

Library Hours: Tuesday-Friday 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturday 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.
