

NATIONAL SPORTING LIBRARY & MUSEUM

2020 ANNUAL REPORT

A painting of a river scene with people fishing. The scene is set in a lush, green landscape with a river flowing through it. In the foreground, a person is standing in the shallow water, fishing. In the background, two other people are sitting on a rocky bank, also fishing. The painting is done in a soft, impressionistic style with visible brushstrokes.

FROM THE DIRECTOR

There is no doubt that 2020 was a challenging year. When the Library & Museum closed to the public in March, we had no idea when we would return or what the future would look like. However, our staff, Board of Directors, and supporters alike came together to support the NSLM in extraordinary ways.

The 2020 Annual Report shows how the NSLM not only survived but thrived. Programs that were traditionally in-person went virtual for the first time, such as our monthly Sunday Sketch and Coffee with the Curator series. Additionally, virtual tours of exhibitions like Phyllis Mills Wyeth: A Celebration and Leading the Field: Ellen Emmet Rand were made available. These efforts were immensely successful and led to the participation of more than 38,000 people. More people visited our blog, Drawing Covert, and website than ever before.

Our team continued to impress me with their creativity. We even turned the annual community Blessing of the Animals into a drive-thru and saw dozens of furry and feathered friends.

The Museum reopened in July with two pop-up exhibitions: In Bronze: Herbert Haseltine and Recent Acquisitions: Benson and Pleissner. The former featured the 12 Herbert Haseltine sculptures in the permanent collection, alongside a loan, to show the artist's evolution and range, and the latter highlighted five angling paintings by Frank Weston Benson and Ogden Minton Pleisser donated that spring. The exhibition schedule had to be adjusted with Thrill of the 'Chace: Steeplechase in Art postponed from the spring of 2020 to the fall. We are appreciative of the many exhibition lenders who were flexible, and all generously agreed to the schedule change. Thrill of the 'Chace opened in October with virtual programs and tours available.

The Library hosted A Horse of Course: The Equine Image in Art, a traveling exhibition of reproduction photographs from the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. VMFA Curator Jeffery Allison spoke in a virtual program about the history of horse imagery.

Our Polo Classic was able to move forward in an modified format with additional safety measures in place, including limited ticketing and socially-distanced tailgate tents. Despite the numerous changes, it was a successful event; the support shown to the NSLM was heartening and inspiring. To return the community spirit, portions of the proceeds were donated to Seven Loaves Services and the Fauquier County Food Bank.

We know and understand how difficult 2020 was for everyone, and we are grateful for our wonderful community. Thank you for your support and thoughtful contributions.

ABOUT THE NSLM

Founded in 1954, the National Sporting Library & Museum (NSLM) is located in Middleburg, the heart of Virginia's beautiful hunt country. The inviting 6-acre campus, world-class research Library, and fine art Museum highlight the rich heritage and tradition of country pursuits and advocates for the conservation of landscape, open space, and waterways integral to these activities. Angling, wingshooting, horsemanship, shooting, steeplechasing, foxhunting, flat racing, polo, coaching, and wildlife are among the subjects one can explore in the institution's general stacks, rare book holdings, archives, and art collection. The NSLM offers a wide variety of educational programs, exhibitions, and family activities throughout the year.

MISSION

Dedicated to preserving, promoting, and sharing the literature, art, and culture of equestrian, angling and field sports.

RESTORATIONS

Restoration of books through the Book Adoption Program allows the NSLM to save fantastic treasures in need of care before returning to use. All of them contain noteworthy historical information on equestrian, angling, and field sports. In 2020, 22 books were adopted through charitable giving and the Book Adoption Program.

Cours d'hippiatrique, published in Paris in 1772 by Philippe–Etienne Lafosse, is an oversized book that was in need of serious repairs. The restoration for this prized collection item was generously adopted by Mrs. Frances M. Dulaney.

Cours d'hippiatrique by Philippe–Etienne Lafosse (1772). Paris: Chez Edme.
